The following information is only for you. Don't share any of your information with your fellow players before the game.

Do not read the information from round 1 until you all meet together on game night. Not before!

Discuss with your host whether you should come to the game in costume.

You are Ella Newhouse (22):

It's always been your dream to be pursued and won over – like the prince does for Cinderella, after whom you're named. In The One, you've found your prince in Alexander von Altenburg. And you totally feel like lowly Cinderella among all the beautiful women who seem to effortlessly fit in to the TV format. However, you are firmly convinced that Alexander will find and choose you. Last night, there was no ball for you to lose your glass slipper, but after a lot of back and forth, you were finally able to spend some very special hours with your prince.

You never would have seen yourself on a show like The One, but when you consulted your personal psychic months ago about your future happiness, she predicted your participation. You quit your job in the veterinary office, applied as a contestant on the show, and got selected! Then they flew you to the Maldives, where you're certain you're going to meet your soul mate and future life partner.

The trip demanded a lot from you. You had to leave behind your parents, your puppies, and your horse. You haven't had constant access to your psychic or to Guido, your guru. And when things get really bad, you aren't even allowed to leave the grounds and use your credit cards to do some retail therapy.

You've become more and more frustrated in the past few weeks. Even though the crew members and most of the other girls in the house have been super nice, one candidate has made life hell for you: Cheyenne. She's won the single date after each competition and has been able to spend valuable time with Alexander, your dream prince and future fiancé. And that's what it's all about for you. At the end of the show, Alexander will propose to one woman. The couple gets engaged in the finale and the bride wins $50,000 to host the wedding. Unfortunately, you can't spend the $50,000 on your dream wedding because you need it to pay off your credit card debt. You hope you'll have a chance to confess this to Alexander during the honeymoon.

The more you've gotten to know Alexander, the more you love him. You're ready to marry him at any time and will certainly accept his proposal. Although you've kissed a few frogs before finding your dream prince, you've never gone all the way with anyone before. All of the other women on „The One“ have so much more experience they can share with Alexander. Your enemy Cheyenne in particular has always made fun of you due to your innocence in this area. It's a good thing the crew is so understanding. Judith Freud, the psychologist, has really helped you endure the strain so you could continue to fight for Alexander. After all, Cinderella never gave up despite all of the mean things her wicked stepmother and stepsisters did.

In love, you sometimes have to dare to take a risk, especially to win the man you will love forever and whose name you will soon bear. That's why you slipped into Alexander's room last night. Everything was incredibly romantic and Alexander was so charming and loving. This was your first time sleeping with your future husband, and it was a fairytale come true. You're elated that Alexander hasn't gone this far with the other contestants. Only the two of you share this experience! You are now so closely connected that you'll soon be able to tell him more of your secrets.

You did NOT kill Cheyenne Aleon. You may not lie during the game. You may withhold information that incriminates you. If you are asked for something directly, you must tell the truth.

Goal of the game: Find out who killed Cheyenne Aleon and their motive.

Personal goal: You love Alexander, come what may. Convince him to give you the last rose.

Your appearance: You like dreamy, feminine outfits. You prefer wearing dresses with a floral pattern and delicate jewelry. You combine pearls, golden bracelets, and ribbons to match with everything you wear. You prefer to wear your long hair in a ponytail. When Alexander gives you a rose, you'll carry it with you everywhere. After all, it's the best accessory you could ever have.

Your feelings about the others:

Cheyenne Aleon (victim): You don't like Cheyenne. She's mean and volatile. The way she behaves, you don't even think that she's in the show to find love. Unfortunately, you have to share a room with her.

Samantha Edwards: Sam has become a really good friend. She often helps you with your makeup and supports you whenever Cheyenne is nasty. You don't have siblings, but Sam is like the big sister you have always wanted.

Nina King: You've always been a little afraid of the producer. When she tells you how to perform for the show, you follow her directions without question.

Benjamin Ballhaus: The cameraman is really nice, but sometimes he uses words you don't know. He's probably the smartest person on the set.

Alexander von Altenburg: Alexander is your first true love. You can't wait to finally say "yes" to his marriage proposal and become Ella von Altenburg.

George von Altenburg: You don't know Alexander's father yet as the dates with the parents don't take place until tomorrow. Of course, you want to make a good impression with your future father-in-law.

Judith Freud: The psychologist has become your confidante on the set. You both follow a very similar spiritual path, and you can confidently entrust all your secrets and worries to her.

Stopp!
